

LITERARY ITEMS.

Ticknor & Fields announce "Summer Rest," a new volume of essays by Gail Hamilton. They have also in press "A Book of Sonnets" by Leigh Hunt, never before published. This is not a collection of Hunt's own poems, but an essay on the English and Italian sonnetters, with specimens of their best productions.

E. B. TREAT & CO., No. 654 Broadway, will shortly publish "The Lost Cause," an official Southern history of the war, by E. A. Pollard of the "Rockwood Examiner."

Mrs. Anna Cora Ritchie has a new novel, entitled "The Muse Singer," in the press of Carlton. The same publisher will issue, in a few days, "James Stephen, C. O. H., and the Fenian Brotherhood," a biography written with the authority of the Head Center himself.

Baker, Voorhis & Co. announce a new edition of John J. Elwell's "Medico-Legal Treatise on Malpractice and Medical Evidence, comprising the Elements of Medical Jurisprudence."

Strahan & Co. are about to publish "The Angel's Song," by Thomas Guthrie, D.D.; "President Lincoln self-portrayed," by John Malcolm Ludlow, Barrister; a revised edition of Sir Morton Peto's "Resources and Prospects of America"; "Ingenior's Studies for Stories," illustrated; and "London Poems," by Robert Buchanan.

Leybold & Holt have in press translations of the "Sakuntala," "Prithivi's Saga," and Lessing's drama of "Nathan the Wise."

Robert Buchanan is writing "The Story of David Gray," the peasant-poet to whom memory so addressed the lines "To David in Heaven" which appear at the beginning of his "Understones."

Algernon Charles Swinburne is collecting his "Miscellaneous Poems."

New Publications.

413 CARLETON, PUBLISHER, Broadway, New-York.

NEW BOOKS THIS WEEK.

THE MUTE SINGER.

A brilliant and fascinating new novel by Mrs. Anna Cora Ritchie, author of "Fairy Pictures." One of the most charming fictions of the year, and the most popular of the month. Price, $1.75.

517 THE FOOL'S FUNGUS—Curious and witty remarks and spicy extracts, ranging from the popular. A book that will create more amusement and laughter than many of the so-called humorous works of the day. Price, $1 per volume.

518 GREAT LEAVES MAKE HAPPY HOMES—A delightful new story in the "Scandinavia-Cotta" style. Price, $1.50.

Josh Billings, His Cook Book—Illustrated. $1.50.

Boymaster—A splendid new English Novel. $1.75.

Game Birds of the North. By Worcester. $2.00.

Admiral Dixie—Introduction by Edmund Kirke. $1.50.

Jurgis—Victor Hugo's remarkable Novel. Illustrated. $1.75.

Recommended to Mercy—A powerful English Novel. $1.75.

"These books are all beautifully bound in cloth—sold everywhere—and will be sent by mail, postage free, on receipt of price, to C. L. LIPPINCOTT, Publisher, New-York."

Nearly Ready.

HURD & HOUGHTON, No. 49 BROAD-ST., N. Y., will publish on Saturday, June 11, "MEN AND THEIR HABITS; or, An Autobiography of Birthdays, Young, His Numerous Wives and Children." By Mrs. G. W. WAITE. 1 vol. 12mo. cloth. 4 portraits on steel. Price, $1.75.

518 BRIEF BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY. Compiled and arranged by the Rev. CHARLES HALE, B.A., with additions and corrections by WILLIAM A. WHEELER, M. A. 1 vol. cloth. Price, $1.50.

SHAKESPEARE'S DELINATIONS OF INSANITY, INSANITY AND SUICIDE. By D. KENNEDY, M. D., Physician to the Insane Asylum, Union, N. Y. 1 vol. cloth. $1.50.

NEW SACRED MUSIC. By DENNIS, F. 4 vols. by H. G. FARNHAM. $1.50.

"I Sing of Peace" (Hymns for the Sabbath), $1.50.

"I Will Love Thee" (Roman, Italian and English Standard). $1.50.

"Apostles." L. Louis, Italian and English. $1.50.

"Lord Farver at Thy Side" (with Quintet Melody by Alz.) $1.50.

"Our Sons the Deep-Hearted" (for Tenor and Soprano). $1.50.

"O How Available—Quintet by W. H. Walker." $1.50.

Published by ELLIOT, GREENLAW & CO., Broad-st., N. Y.

NEW VOCAL MUSIC JUST PUBLISHED. By DENNIS, F. 4 vols. by H. G. FARNHAM. $1.50.

"I Sing of Peace" (Hymns for the Sabbath), $1.50.

"I Will Love Thee" (Roman, Italian and English Standard). $1.50.

"Apostles." L. Louis, Italian and English. $1.50.

"Lord Farver at Thy Side" (with Quintet Melody by Alz.) $1.50.

"Our Sons the Deep-Hearted" (for Tenor and Soprano). $1.50.

"O How Available—Quintet by W. H. Walker." $1.50.

Published by ELLIOT, GREENLAW & CO., Broad-st., N. Y.

NEW PIANO MUSIC. By DENNIS, F. 4 vols. by H. G. FARNHAM. $1.50.

"I Sing of Peace" (Hymns for the Sabbath), $1.50.

"I Will Love Thee" (Roman, Italian and English Standard). $1.50.

"Apostles." L. Louis, Italian and English. $1.50.

"Lord Farver at Thy Side" (with Quintet Melody by Alz.) $1.50.

"Our Sons the Deep-Hearted" (for Tenor and Soprano). $1.50.

"O How Available—Quintet by W. H. Walker." $1.50.

Published by ELLIOT, GREENLAW & CO., Broad-st., N. Y.

NEW PHYSIOPSY, OR, SIGNS OF CHAR-ACTER. As manifested through Temperament and External Forms, and especially in the Human Face. Divine. With more than 100 illustrations. By S. R. WELLS, Editor PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL. In one volume, handsomely bound. $5. Address FOWLER & WELLS, No. 209 Broadway, N. Y.

This work systematic and shows the scientific basis on which phrenology rests. The "signs of character" are minutely elucidated, and so plainly stated as to render them intelligible. It is in the division of individual types, and the various races described. The Tibetan, Celts, Scandinavians, Greeks, Mongolian, Indian, Patagonian, African, &c., each represented. The signs of temperament, and the various forms of character, with biographical sketches and delineations of character, render the work complete. The author has given a full account of the signs of character, and the spread of their opinions among the nations, is presented.

The geographical explorations and discoveries are stated. The reader will find the author's views fully explained. Not the large majority being distinguished men overthrown.

The contents are accompanied by a most extensive and complete index.

The portions of each volume devoted to the United States embrace the operations of the army, who "step and day by day, and with increasing numbers, march to victory." The condition of the country, and the progress of the war, are fully depicted.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the war, in which process has been made, is fully depicted, and the developments fully brought up.

The condition of the principal religious denominations, with their mutual relations, and the progress of the cause of human emancipation, peace, &c., the internal affairs of all the States; their military enterprises, industry and prosperity.

Under Foreign Affairs, the author has given a full account of the progress of the war, the progress of those destructive maladies, the Cholera and Cutaneous Disease, are not overlooked, nor the peculiar features of the disease in each.

The progress of the